With long blonde hair, she just walked in

 F# B
Here comes a broken heart again

She's telling all the same lies again

She's telling all the same lies again

Her smile's just as sweet as it's ever been

She's telling all the same lies again

Here comes them old blues again

Here comes them old blues again

She opened up the door and they just walked in

Here comes those old blues again

There goes my happiness again

There goes my happiness again

She's leaving again as fast as she walked in

There goes my happiness again

I won't let her break my heart again

I won't let her break my heart again

Until the next time she wants to come in

I won't let her break my heart again
