

Red Letter Day for the Blues

Key of A

as performed by the Gibson Brothers

A

All alone here I stand

E

Heart in hell chin in hand

A

Wondering what will I do without you

A

Did I know did I see

E

Did I drive her away from me

A

Did I cause her to be so untrue

Chorus:

E

The way she done me it ain't fair

D

A

Think I'm losing all my hair

E

Paid the price for the life that I choose

A

It's a red letter day for the blues

(break)

A

You were young you were wild

E

You were nothing but a child

A

You were sweet as a honeysuckle tree

A

Before I know before I saw

E

You took a young man and turned him old

A

And you drove on down the road of misery

Chorus

(break)
