

Country Roads - John Denver

CHORUS:

Country roads take me home, to the place I belong
West Virginia, mountain momma, take me home, country roads.

Almost heaven, West Virginia, Blue Ridge Mountains, Shenandoah River Life is old there, older than the trees, younger than the mountains, growin' like a breeze.

CHORUS:

Country roads take me home, to the place I belong
West Virginia, mountain momma, take me home, country roads.

All my memories gather round her, miner's lady, stranger to blue waters.
Dark and dusty, painted on the sky, misty taste of moonshine, teardrops in my eye.

CHORUS:

Country roads take me home, to the place I belong
West Virginia, mountain momma, take me home, country roads.

I hear her voice in the mornin' hours she call to me. Radio reminds me of my home far away.

Drivin' down the road I get the feelin' that I should'a been home yesterday...yesterday.

CHORUS:

Country roads take me home, to the place I belong
West Virginia, mountain momma, take me home, country roads.

Take me home, country roads. Take me home, country roads.

Written by Bill Danoff, Mary "Taffy" Nivert, and John Denver. Released by John Denver in 1971. Considered to be Denver's signature song (per Wikipedia) and is one of several official state anthems of West Virginia.
