

GREENBACK DOLLAR – Hoyt Axton

Some people say I'm a no count – others say I'm no good
But I'm just a nat'rul born travelin' man – doin' what I think I should, poor boy, doin' what I think I should.

CHORUS:

And I don't give a damn about a greenback dollar – spend it fast as I can.
For a wailin' song and a good guitar – the only things that I understand, poor boy – the only things that I understand.

When I was a little baby – my mama said, hey son.
Travel where you will and grow to be a man and sing what must be sung, oh yeah, sing what must be sung.

CHORUS

Now that I am a grown man – I've traveled here and there.
I've learned that a bottle of brandy and a song are the only ones that ever care, oh yeah, only ones that ever care.

CHORUS

Some people say I'm a no count – others say I'm no good
But I'm just a nat'rul born travelin' man – doin' what I think I should, poor boy, doin' what I think I should.

CHORUS

Per Wikipedia, "Greenback Dollar" was written by Hoyt Axton and Ken Ramsey, and recorded by Axton on his 1962 album "Greenback Dollar." It has also been recorded by Jim Croce and by The Kingston Trio.
