

SOMEDAY SOON – Ian Tyson

There's a young man that I know, whose age is twenty-one
Comes from down in southern Colorado
Just out of the service, he's looking for is fun
Someday soon, goin' with him, someday soon.

My parents cannot stand him 'cause he rides the rodeo
My father says that he will leave me cryin'
I would follow him right down the roughest road I know
Someday soon, goin' with him, someday soon.

REFRAIN:

But when he comes to call my Pa ain't got a good word to say.
Guess it's 'cause he's just as wild in his younger days.
So blow, you old blue northern, blow my love to me
He's ridin' in tonight from California.
He loves his damned old rodeo as much as he loves me.
Someday soon, goin' with him, someday soon.

REFRAIN:

But when he comes to call my Pa ain't got a good word to say.
Guess it's 'cause he's just as wild in his younger days.
So blow, you old blue northern, blow my love to me
He's ridin' in tonight from California.
He loves his damned old rodeo as much as he loves me.
Someday soon, goin' with him, someday soon.

Someday soon, goin' with him...someday soooooon!

"Someday Soon" was composed by Canadian singer/songwriter Ian Tyson and recorded by him and his then wife, Sylvia, as the duo Ian & Sylvia in 1964. The song has been recorded by many artists, including The Kingston Trio (1965), Judy Collins (1969), Lynn Anderson (1970), Tanya Tucker (1975), and Crystal Gayle, (1978). Glen Campbell sang it from the male perspective: "Now there's a young girl that I know..."
