

A Blossom Fell

As sung by Nat King Cole

A blossom fell from off a tree
It settled softly on the lips you turned to me.

The Gypsies say, and I know why.
A falling blossom only touches lips that lie.

A blossom fell and very soon
I saw you kissing someone new beneath the moon.

I thought you loved me, you said you loved me.
We planned together to dream forever.

The dream has ended, for true love died
The night a blossom fell and touched two lips that lied.

A blossom fell and very soon
I saw you kissing someone new beneath the moon.

I thought you loved me, you said you loved me
We planned together to dream forever.

The dream has ended, for true love died
The night a blossom fell and touched two lips that lied.

"A Blossom Fell" was written by Howard Barnes, Harold Cornelius, and Dominic John and published in 1954. The best-known version was recorded by Nat King Cole, reaching the Billboard magazine charts in April 1955, and lasting 20 weeks on the charts. The song was recorded again for the album The Nat King Cole Story (1961.)
