

A Teenager in Love

Dion and the Belmonts

Each time we have a quarrel, it almost breaks my heart,
Cause I'm so afraid that we will have to part.

Each night I ask the stars up above,
Why must I be a teenager in love?

One day I feel so happy, next day I feel so sad.

I guess I'll learn to take the good with the bad.

Cause each night I ask the stars up above,
Why must I be a teenager in love?

I cried a tear for nobody but you,

I'll be a lonely one, if you should say we're through.

Well, if you want to make me cry, that won't be so hard to do.

If you should say goodbye, I'll still go on loving you.

Each night I ask the stars up above,
Why must I be a teenager in love?

I cried a tear for nobody but you,

I'll be a lonely one, if you should say we're through.

Well, if you want to make me cry, that won't be so hard to do.

And if you should say goodbye, I'll still go on loving you.

Each night I ask the stars up above,

Why must I be a teenager in love? (In love)

Why must I be a teenager in love? (In love)

Why must I be a teenager in love? (In love)

Why must I be a teenager in love?

"A Teenager in Love" was written by Doc Pomus and partner Mort Shuman. It was originally recorded by Dion and the Belmonts, and was released in March 1959. The song reached #5 on the Billboard pop charts. In May 1959, the three different versions of song held positions in the British Top 20. The song is considered one of the greatest in rock and roll history.
