

BEYOND THE SEA

As sung by Bobby Darin

Somewhere beyond the sea, somewhere waiting for me,
My lover stands on golden sands,
And watches the ships that go sailing.

Somewhere beyond the sea. She's there watching for me.
If I could fly like birds on high, then straight to her arms
I'd go sailing.

It's far beyond a star. It's near beyond the moon.
I know beyond a doubt my heart will lead me there soon.

We'll meet beyond the shore. We'll kiss just as before.
Happy we'll be beyond the sea,
And never again I'll go sailing.

I know beyond a doubt my heart will lead me there soon.
We'll meet, I know we'll meet beyond the shore.

We'll kiss just as before. Happy we'll be beyond the sea,
and never again I'll go sailing.

No more sailing. So long, sailing. Bye bye, sailing.

So long, Captain. Bye bye, sailin'.

Bobby Darin's 1959 version of "Beyond the Sea" is by far the best known, so is included in "Lost in the 50s." It was actually written by Jack Lawrence in 1945 and it was recorded in obscurity by many artists until Bobby Darin's version.
