

BLUE SUEDE SHOES

Carl Perkins

Well it's one for the money, two for the show,
Three to get ready, now go cat go.
But don't you, step on my blue suede shoes.
You can do anything, but lay off of my blue suede shoes.

You can knock me down, step in my face, slander my Name all over the place. Do anything that you want to do,
But uh uh honey lay off of my shoes.
And don't you step on my blue suede shoes.
You can do anything but lay off of my blue suede shoes.

You can burn my house, steal my car,
Drink my liquor from an old fruit jar.
Do anything that you want to do,
But uh uh honey lay off of my shoes.
And don't you, step on my blue suede shoes
You can do anything but lay off of my blue suede shoes.

Well it's one for the money, two for the show,
Three to get ready, now go cat go.
But don't you, step on my blue suede shoes.
You can do anything, but lay off of my blue suede shoes.

Blue, blue, blue suede shoes.
Blue, blue, blue suede shoes, yeah.
Blue, blue, blue suede shoes baby.
Blue, blue, blue suede shoes.

You can do anything but lay off of my blue suede shoes.

Written and first recorded by Carl Perkins in 1955, Blue Suede Shoes is considered one of the first rockabilly records, incorporating elements of blues, country and pop music of the time. Elvis performed his version of the song three different times on national television. It was also recorded by Buddy Holly and many others.
