

Canadian Sunset

As sung by Andy Williams

Once I was alone, so lonely and then,
You came, out of nowhere
Like the sun up from the hills.

Cold, cold was the wind.
Warm, warm were your lips.
Out there, on that ski trail,
Where your kiss filled me with thrills.

A weekend in Canada, a change of scene
Was the most I bargained for.
And then I discovered you and in your eyes
I found the love that I couldn't ignore.

Down, down came the sun,
Fast, fast, fast, beat my heart.
I knew when the sun set
From that day, we'd never ever part.

"Canadian Sunset." Music by jazz pianist Eddie Heywood; lyrics by Norman Gimbel. An instrumental version by Heywood and Hugo Winterhalter reached No. 2 on the Billboard Hot 100 chart and No. 7 on the R&B chart in 1956. Andy Williams version was also popular in 1956, reaching No. 7 on the Billboard chart. The song was also recorded by such well-known artists as Wes Montgomery, George Shearing, Etta James, Sam Cooke and Dean Martin.
