

Diana

Paul Anka

I'm so young and you're so old. This, my darling, I've been told.
I don't care just what they say 'cause forever I will pray.
You and I will be as free as the birds up in the trees.
Oh, please stay by me, Diana.

Thrills I get when you hold me close.
Oh, my darling, you're the most.
I love you but do you love me? Oh, Diana, can't you see?
I love you with all my heart and I hope we will never part.

Oh, please stay with me, Diana.

Oh, my darlin', oh, my lover, tell me that there is no other.
I love you with my heart. Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh.

Only you can take my heart. Only you can tear it apart.
When you hold me in your loving arms,
I can feel you giving all your charms.

Hold me, darling, ho-ho hold me tight.
Squeeze me baby with-a all your might.

Oh, please stay by me, Diana.
Oh, please, Diana...Oh, please, Diana.. . Oh, please, Diana

"Diana" was written and made famous by Paul Anka in 1957. In his autobiography Anka stated that the song was inspired by a girl named Diana Ayoub, whom he had met at his church and community events, and had developed a crush on.

Paul Anka's original 1957 recording reached number 1 on the Billboard "Best Sellers in Stores" chart and number 2 on Billboard's composite "Top 100" chart, and has reportedly sold over nine million copies.
