

I'll be Seeing You

As sung by Frank Sinatra

I'll be seeing you in all the old, familiar places
That this heart of mine embraces
All day through.

In that small café, the park across the way,
The children's carousel, the chestnut tree,
The wishing well.

I'll be seeing you in every lovely, summer's day.
In everything that's bright and gay.
I'll always think of you that way.

I'll find you in the morning sun, and when the night is new
I'll be looking at the moon,
But I'll be seeing you.

REPEAT FROM THE TOP

Published in 1938, with music by Sammy Fain and lyrics by Irving Kahal. The title of the 1944 film I'll Be Seeing You was taken from this song. The recording by Bing Crosby became a hit in 1944, reaching number one for the week of July 1. Frank Sinatra's version with Tommy Dorsey and His Orchestra charted in 1944, as well, and peaked at No. 4.
