

Memories are Made of This

Dean Martin

(The sweet, sweet memories you've given me
You can't beat the memories you've given me)

Take one fresh and tender kiss, add one stolen night of bliss.
One girl; one boy; some grief; some joy:
Memories are made of this.

Don't forget a small moonbeam. Fold it lightly with a dream.
Your lips and mine, two sips of wine:
Memories are made of this.

Then add the wedding bells; one house where lovers dwell;
Three little kids for the flavor.

Stir carefully through the days. See how the flavor stays.
These are the dreams you will savor.

With His blessings from above, serve it generously with love.
One man, one wife, one love, through life:
Memories are made of this.

Memories are made of this.

Written by Terry Gilkyson, Richard Dehr, and Frank Miller in 1955, the most popular version of this song was recorded by Dean Martin in 1955. Martin's version reached No. 1 on Billboard's Top 100 chart, remaining at the top for five weeks in 1956, while spending six weeks atop Billboard's chart of songs "Most Played by Jockeys," five weeks atop Billboard's chart of "Best Sellers in Stores," and four weeks atop Billboard's chart of songs "Most Played in Juke Boxes". It became a Gold record and Dean Martin's biggest hit.
