

MUSIC MUSIC MUSIC

Stephen Weiss and Bernie Baum

Verse 1

Put another nickel in, in the nickelodeon.
All I want is having you and music, music, music.

Verse 2

I'd do anything for you, anything you'd want me to.
All I want is kissing you, and music, music, music.

CHORUS:

Closer, my dear, come closer.
The nicest part of any melody, is when you're dancing close to me.

Verse 3

So, put another nickel in, in the nickelodeon. All I want is loving you and music, music, music.

Verse 1

Verse 2

CHORUS:

Verse 3

OUTRO:

Lum-dee, dum-dee, dah-dee-dum. Lum-dee, dum-dee, dah-dee-dum.
Lum-dee, dum-dee, dah-dee-dum...(Fade.)

Written and published in 1949, the biggest-selling version of the song was recorded by Teresa Brewer with the Dixieland All Stars in December 1949, and released in 1950. It became a number 1 hit and a million-seller in 1950.
