

Sincerely

The McGuire Sisters

Sincerely, oh yes, sincerely,
'cause I love you so dearly, please say you'll be mine.

Sincerely, oh you know how I love you.
I'll do anything for you. Please say you'll be mine.

Oh Lord, won't you tell me why
I love that fella so.
He doesn't want me,
But I'll never, never, never, never let him go!

Sincerely, oh you know how I love you.
I'll do anything for you. Please say you'll be mine.

Oh Lord, won't you tell me why
I love that fella so.
He doesn't want me,
But I'll never, never, never, never let him go!

Sincerely, oh you know how I love you.
I'll do anything for you. Please say you'll be mine.

Please say you'll be mine.

"Sincerely" was written by Harvey Fuqua and Alan Freed and published in 1954. It was originally recorded by the Moonglows, but the best-selling version was a pop cover recorded by the McGuire Sisters, which entered the charts in 1954 and reached number one the next year.

In 1988, a cover of the song by the country quartet Forester Sisters reached number 8 on the Billboard Hot Country Songs chart.
