

Singing the Blues

Guy Mitchell

Well, I never felt more like singin' the blues,
'Cause I never thought that I'd ever lose
Your love dear.
Why'd you do me this way?

Well, I never felt more like cryin' all night,
'Cause everythin's wrong, and nothin' ain't right
Without you.
You got me singin' the blues.

Oh, the moon and stars no longer shine.
The dream is gone I thought was mine.
There's nothin' left for me to do
But cry-y-y-y over you (cry over you.)

Well, I never felt more like runnin' away,
But why should I go, 'cause I couldn't stay
Without you.
You got me singin' the blues.

REPEAT FROM THE TOP

You got me singin' the blues.

"Singing the Blues" was written by Melvin Endsley and published in 1956. The song was first recorded and released by Marty Robbins in 1956, but the best-known recording was released in October 1956 by Guy Mitchell. It spent ten weeks at number 1 on the U.S. Billboard chart from December 1956 into February 1957.
