

There! I've Said it Again

As sung by Bobby Vinton

I love you, there's nothing to hide,
It's better than burning inside,
I love you, no use to pretend,
There! I've said it again.

I've said it, what more can I say,
Believe me, there's no other way,
I love you, I will to the end,
There! I've said it again.

Bridge

I try to drum up, a phrase that will sum up,
All that I feel for you.
But what good are phrases, the thought that amazes,
Is that you love me, and it's heavenly.

Verse 3

Forgive me for wanting you so,
But one thing I want you to know,
I've loved you since heaven knows when,
There! I've said it again.

Verse 3

"There! I've Said It Again" was written by Redd Evans and David Mann, and popularized originally by Vaughn Monroe in 1945, and then again in late 1963 and early 1964 by Bobby Vinton. 1945 also saw releases by Jimmy Dorsey and by The Modernaires. Vinton's version was the final number one song on the Hot 100 prior to the Beatles.
