

Twilight Time

As sung by The Platters

Heavenly shades of night are falling, it's twilight time.
Out of the mist your voice is calling, its twilight time.

When purple colored curtains mark the end of the day,
I hear you, my dear at twilight time.

Verse 2

Deepening shadows gather splendor as day is done.
Fingers of night will soon surrender the setting sun.

I count the moments, darling, till you're here with me,
Together at last at twilight time.

Verse 3

Here in the afterglow of day we keep our rendezvous
Beneath the blue.
Here in the sweet and same old way, I fall in love again
As I did then.

REPEAT VERSES 2 and 3

Deep in the dark your kiss will thrill me like days of old.
Lighting the spark of love that fills me with dreams untold.
Each day I pray for evening just to be with you,
Together at last at twilight time.

Together at last at twilight time.

With lyrics by Buck Ram, music by The Three Suns, "Twilight Time" has been recorded by numerous groups over the years. The best-known version of the song was recorded by the Platters in 1958.

Original instrumental recordings of "Twilight Time" included those made by the Three Suns (1944) and Les Brown & His Band of Renown (1945).
