

UNFORGETTABLE

As sung by Nat King Cole

Unforgettable. That's what you are,
Unforgettable, tho' near or far.

Like a song of love that clings to me,
How the thought of you does things to me.
Never before has someone been more...

Unforgettable, in every way.
And forever more that's how you'll stay.

That's why, darling, it's incredible
That someone so unforgettable
Thinks that I am unforgettable, too.

Unforgettable, in every way.
And forever more that's how you'll stay.

That's why, darling, it's incredible
That someone so unforgettable
Thinks that I am unforgettable, too.

Unforgettable was written by Irving Gordon, produced by Lee Gillette and published in 1951. The most popular version of the song was recorded by Nat King Cole in 1951 from his album Unforgettable (1952), with an arrangement written by Nelson Riddle. In 1991, Cole's original recording of the song was edited and remixed to create a duet with his daughter, Natalie. The song won three awards at the 34th Annual Grammy Awards (1992): Song of the Year, Record of the Year and Best Traditional Pop Vocal Performance.
