

Vaya con Dios

Les Paul and Mary Ford

Now the hacienda's dark, the town is sleeping.
Now the time has come to part,
The time for weeping.

Vaya con Dios, my darling,
Vaya con Dios, my love.

Now the village mission bells are softly ringing.
If you listen with your heart,
You'll hear them singing.

Vaya con Dios, my darling,
Vaya con Dios, my love.

Wherever you may be, I'll be beside you,
Although you're many million dreams away.
Each night I'll say a prayer, a prayer to guide you,
To hasten every lonely hour of every lonely day.

Now the dawn is breaking through a gray tomorrow
But the memories we share are there to borrow.

Vaya con Dios, my darling,
Vaya con Dios, my love.

Vaya con Dios, my darling,
Vaya con Dios, my love.

Vaya con Dios (May God Be with You,) literally "Go with God," was written by Larry Russell, Inez James, and Buddy Pepper. The most popular version of the song was recorded by Les Paul and Mary Ford in 1953. Members of the Western Writers of America chose it as one of the Top 100 Western songs of all time.
