

(THE) WORLD I USED TO KNOW

77

C F C Dm G7 C
Some day an old familiar rain
C Am F G7 Dm
will come along and know my name
Dm G A# A7 Dm
And then my shelter will be gone,
Dm G C
and I'll have to move along

Em Dm C Am
But till I do, I'll stay awhile
Am F G C G7 C
and track the hidden country of your smile

Chorus 1

C F C Dm G7 C
Some day the man I used to be
C Am F G Dm
will come along and call on me.
Dm G A# A7 Dm
And then because I'm just a man,
Dm G C
you'll find my feet are made of sand.

Em Dm Am
But till that time, I'll tell you lies
Am F G C G C
and chart the hidden boundaries of your eyes.

Chorus 2

C F C Dm G C
Some day the world I used to know
C Am F G Dm
will come along and bid me go.
Dm G A# Am Dm
Then I'll be leaving you behind,
Dm G C
for love is just a state of mind

Em Dm C Am
But till that day, I'll be your man,
Am F G C G C
and love away your troubles if I can.

Chorus 3

Em Dm C Am
But till that day, I'll be your man,
Am F G C
and love away your troubles if I can.

Chorus 3