

Scotch and Soda

The Kingston Trio

[Verse 1]

Scotch and soda, mud in your eye.

Baby do I feel high, oh me oh my, do I feel high.

Dry martini, jigger of gin, oh what a spell you've got me in,

Oh my, do I feel high.

[Verse 2]

People won't believe me. They'll think that I'm just braggin'.

But I could feel the way I do, and still be on the wag--on.

[Chorus]

All I need is one of your smiles,

Sunshine of your eye, oh me oh my,

Do I feel higher than a kite can fly.

Give me lovin', baby I feel high.

[Verse 2]

Chorus w/ 2nd ending: Give me lovin', baby I (pause) feel high.

Recorded by The Kingston Trio in 1958. This song was discovered by the Trio through the parents of baseball player Tom Seaver, who had heard it in a hotel piano lounge in 1932 when on their honeymoon in Phoenix, Arizona. The trio never discovered the real songwriter's name, though they searched for years.
