

Yes Sir, That's My Baby

Yes sir, that's my baby. No sir, I don't mean maybe.

Yes sir, that's my baby now.

Yes, ma'am, we've decided. No ma'am, we won't hide it.

Yes, ma'am, you're invited now.

By the way, by the way, when we reach the preacher, I'll say:

Yes sir, that's my baby. No sir, I don't mean maybe.

Yes sir, that's my baby now.

Well, ma'am, we've decided. No ma'am, we won't hide it.

Yes, ma'am, you're invited now.

Pretty soon, pretty soon, we will hear that lo-hen-grin tune.

(I'm sayin') Who for should she be, sir? No one else but me sir.

Yes, sir, that's my baby now.

A popular U.S. song from 1925, with music by Walter Donaldson and lyrics by Gus Kahn. Recorded by over 100 artists in genres from jazz to rock, marimba and country, this song is now in the public domain.
