(56) Stand by Your Man

Intro: C/Dm/G7/C

C   G
Sometimes it's hard being a woman

Dm   G7   C
Giving all your love to just one man

F   C
You'll have bad times, and he'll have good times

D   D7   G   G7
Doing things that you don't understand

C
'but if you love him, you'll forgive him   G

Dm   G7   C   F
Even though he's hard to understand/and if you love him

C
Oh, be proud of him

G   C   F C G
Cause after all he's just a man

     C   E7
     Stand by your man

F
     give him two arms to cling to

C   A
     And something warm to come to

D   G7
     When nights are cold and lonely

     C   E7
     Stand by your man

F
     And tell the world you love him

C   G7   E7   A
     Keep giving all the love you can

F   G   C   F C   G
     Stand by your man