The Old Chisholm Trail

<sup>D</sup>
Oh/come along, boys, and/listen to my tale
I'll/<sup>A7</sup>tell you of my troubles on the/<sup>D</sup>old Chisholm trail

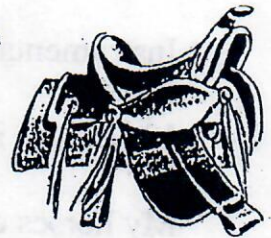

Come a/<sup>A7</sup>ti yi yippy yippy/<sup>D</sup>yea, yippy yea
Come a/<sup>A7</sup>ti yi yippy yippy/<sup>D</sup>yea

<sup>D</sup>
I/<sup>A7</sup>started on the trail October twenty-third
With a/<sup>A7</sup>bunch of long-horned cattle from the/<sup>D</sup>U - Seven herd

Chorus

Ona/<sup>A7</sup>twenty dollar horse and/<sup>D</sup>forty dollar saddle
I/<sup>A7</sup>started out a-punchin' those/<sup>D</sup>Texas cattle

Chorus

It's/<sup>A7</sup>cloudy in the west and/<sup>D</sup>lookin' like rain
And, of/<sup>A7</sup>course, my old slicker's in the/<sup>D</sup>wagon again

Chorus

It's/<sup>A7</sup>bacon and it's beans 'most/<sup>D</sup>every day
I'd/<sup>A7</sup>just as soon be eatin' that/<sup>D</sup>prairie hay

Chorus

With my/<sup>A7</sup>knees in the saddle and my/<sup>D</sup>head in the sky

Chorus
