California aka "I'm Going Home," The Kingston Trio

C Am Dm7 G7 It don't matter where I wander, I will always find a welcome it don't matter where i wander, i will always lind a welcome
C Am C Am Dm7 G7 At the end of every journey – there'll be friendly people waiting
At the end of every journey – there is be mendly people waiting
CHORUS:
C Am Dm7 G7 California could not hold me – though I love her timber mountains.
C Am C Am Dm7 G7
Worked her fields and worked her orchards – up and down her central valley.
C Am Dm7 G7
I have driven broken highways – across the golden Utah Valley
C Am C Am Dm7 G7 Watched the rivers gently gliding – I wave my hand to friendly people.
Watched the fivers gently gliding — I wave my fiding to morally people.
CHORUS
C Am Dm7 G7 Folks who know me call me a drifter – they don't know what house I live in G7 C Am Dm7 G7
C Let them know that someday someone – somebody's gonna make me settle down.
Am Dm7 G7 Am Dm7 G7 I'm goin' home, Lord. I'm goin home. I'm goin' home, Lord. I'm goin home. C Am Dm7 G7
Well no matter where I wander – I know I'll always find a welcome.
C Am Dm7 G7 At the end of every journey – There'll be friendly people waiting.
